Tamara Marie Ida

GRAPHIC DESIGNER | ILLUSTRATOR | CREATIVE DIRECTOR

PROFILE

Multidisciplinary designer with a refined, feminine visual style and the ability to adapt across aesthetics, brands, and mediums. My work spans graphic design, illustration, branding, photo retouching and composites, creative direction, and web design, with an emphasis on thoughtful composition and polished visual storytelling.

SELECTED EXPERIENCE

Independent Graphic Designer & Creative Director

2025 - Present

- Develop visual identities, logos, digital assets, portfolio pieces, and web concepts across personal and commissioned creative projects.
- Create illustration, retouching, photo composites, editorial layouts, and campaign-ready graphics with a strong focus on visual consistency.
- Direct concepts from moodboarding and art direction through final design, adapting style and execution to each project.

House of Wilson - Office & Administrative Manager

Vancouver, BC

- Create and coordinate polished internal communications, event materials, signage, and branded office touchpoints.
- Support website updates and visual content for organizational and foundation initiatives, balancing design quality with practical business needs.
- Lead cross-functional projects requiring organization, vendor coordination, presentation, and creative problem-solving.

Creative Content & Visual Direction

2025 - Present

- Plan and art-direct styled shoots, social content, and character-led visual concepts, including styling, prop direction, image selection, and post-production.
- Build cohesive visual identities across digital platforms through photography, design, editing, and consistent creative direction.
